URBAN WINERY
SYDNEY

Welcome

Urban Winery Sydney is here to make every moment of your wedding magical.

Discover Australia's first true urban winery and the home of A.Retief wines, located on the edge of the city at the Entertainment Quarter.

Our unforgettable wedding venue is best known for its intimate and relaxed feel, catering for groups of up to 250 guests standing and 180 seated. You will feel as though you have been transported to the vineyards of regional NSW as you dine amongst the wine barrels in our fully functional winery.

With endless photo opportunities throughout the Entertainment Quarter, the Urban Winery Sydney allows couples the unique experience of hosting both their ceremony and reception in one location, meaning there's no need to travel between venues on your special day.

With help from your dedicated event manager and event supervisor, we will bring your dream wedding to life in the only place in the city where you can entertain and dine with your guests amongst barrels producing our latest vintage.
